Dear Friend,

I must send you a hurried note to ask you if you got the package I sent more than a week ago - As it contained Mr. Fox's South Commission & the Justice which Paper had put the finishing touches to. Besides a long letter to yr dear self from yr humble servant Me. This week I have been expecting a

Letter from you & each day has distressed - by misapprehension what does it mean? I think & fear of little else now.
What is abroad before us now, the results of this last battle - the wounded & the dead - the accounts we hear make the saddest hearts beat for such sufferings - & I dare I feel myself shuddering by & doing almost nothing

Oh to give the cup of cold water - if I could but do it - As wife & I tell me all about you & your home as I've heard Stewart was a prisoner Aunt C. - I wish Oscar got safely thro but he will be again in this battle now pending Henry Lubbock we hear is at Pickensburg. Goodbye God bless you - & write soon Yr friend J. Lubbock

2 Best love to yr Mother Mr. Tyett told Papa he took the package down himself so it must have gone safely What about yr visit to Papa - is it all fixed up -
